

At Antelope Tour and Travels we have undertaken to provide the best package for our guests to take delight in the blissful land of Ladakh. We have been working and have perfected this package for over two decades... This is our special for one and all....

Overview:

Pick up at Delhi airport and overnight stay at hotel. Fly the next day to Leh. Ordinarily all guest are made to stay in Leh with complete rest for two days for acclimatization. Third day consists of visits to the monasteries around Leh, followed on the fourth day by a Safari cum trek spanning three days involving three to four hours of trek everyday visiting villages. Night stays are organised in local house for three nights followed by a drive back to Leh in car.

After a nights rest at Leh, a package tour to nomadic areas and camping near high altitude lake Tsomoriri is undertaken. This is a 3-day well equipped package with local guides, quality cooks etc. The nights are spent in tents. On the third day one heads back to Leh followed by a one day rest.

Depending on guest preference or time at hand the next activity is, either, climbing the Stok or Kangyachay peak (both above 6000m high) OR a 4 to 5 day normal trek.

Note:- All the above packages are prepared after taking into consideration many technicalities as well as the acclimatization time required by the clients.
