

New Antelope hotel is the perfect blend of luxury and tradition. Run by local Ladakhi family it has been constructed and furnished with all the modern luxuries.

Centrally located on the foot hills of Leh Palace surrounded by green willow and popular trees with a stunning view of Stok Glacier on the north and Khardungla Pass on the south, its breathtaking exteriors only complement the inside. A beautiful and serene garden for relaxing in seclusion yet just a 5 minute walk down to the main market through the famous shops of local bread makers (Nan vaies).

The Hotel has 23 'A' class rooms, centrally heated (optional), bathroom fitted with modern fittings; Room are spacious with wooden flooring, cable TV etc. Spacious Dining hall, designed by a local architect with sitting/ waiting room.

Foods served are local, Chinese and Continental

Facilities like Doctor on call, Internet etc. are available